A TEACHER OF RIGHTEOUSNESS 1970

"SIN: BIBLE VERSION"

From the beginning, the carnal-minded man was questioned,
Why did God forbid the fruit of that certain tree?
He must have had an ulterior motive in His mind,
"You'll certainly die", "I know, He said, but that don't apply to me.
What if I do commit a few sins?
Everyone else does too,
Why should I be different from all the rest of them?
When these things are all of my desire, the things I want to do.

I've seen the hypocrites who claim such great righteousness,
In the darkness of the night,
they creep away to fill their heart's desire.
There are a few yet that I haven't caught in the act,
But I'm sure that they, as all the rest,
Are sunk down in the mire.
I know the Bible says, "God has not left Himself without witness,
But if He has any of them today, they're somewhere I can't see,
But I'm sure that if any were righteous and free from sin,
If any could be good and perfect, then certainly it would be me.

The Bible does not agree with that nor allow their evil deeds,
It's message is bright and clear to those who really listen.
Of sin, it says to us, "By no means shall ye do,
If you will hearken to my voice, your life will really glisten.
So, let's all take heed with all our hearts unto His holy word,
Through His Holy Spirit and His grace,
Overcome all of this world's strife
Turn away from all ungodliness, lust, envy and covetness,
By a careful, diligent, patient walk, lay hold of eternal life.
